WACME SUMMER TRAINING AND CONFERENCE

JUNE 4 - 6

LEAVENWORTH, WASHINGTON

WACME TRAINING CONFERENCE

2012

ANNUAL TRAINING CONFERENCE

JUNE 4-6, 2012

A professional organization of Washington State coroners and medical examiners and their deputies, charged with or interested in the execution and enforcement of state law;

To provide for the prompt exchange of information pertaining to the duties, methods and official practices of members;

To provide for the continuing education in all matters relating to coroners/medical examiners and the safety and welfare of the public;

To promote communication and cooperation with the law enforcement and the medical community and with other individuals and agencies involved in the death investigation.

To serve the public with respectful caring for the deceased, compassion for the living and safeguarding of property.

This Conference will bring together leaders in the medicolegal investigations to one location for training and education. This Annual Training Conference will be a valuable opportunity to network with Coroner's, Medical Examiners, Deputy Medical Examiners and their staff.

This is an excellent opportunity to interface directly with other professionals like yourself.

We are pleased to have as one of our honored guest Dr. Michael Murphy from the Clark County Office of Coroners/Medical Examiner's in Las Vegas, Nevada with us here this year. The Conference theme will surround General Death Investigation, High Profile Case Review/Management, In Custody Deaths, and the Role of the Coroner in Officer Involved Deaths.

In addition, we are honored to have Brad Reynolds, Centralia Police Officer (Ret). Mr. Reynolds will be presenting on Forensic Photography techniques and helping us identify stressors resulting from everyday routine incidents to those intolerable critical incidents.

As with all agencies the WACME training budget is fixed, and the monies allowed for training remain the same as in previous years. However, the WACME Executive Board is stretching our monies to gain a higher level of participation from the counties. Even though our budget remains the same, the current economic trends have created an increase in all expenditures.

As the WACME Executive Board strives to continue a high level of training, we would like to thank all attendees in advance for his or her attendance and the conscious effort to reduce conference reimbursement costs.

This year we are pleased to have as one of our honored guests Coroner Dr. Michael Murphy from the Clark County Office of the Coroner/Medical Examiner's Office in Las Vegas, Nevada. Clark County, Nevada has approximately 14,000 deaths per year with Dr. Murphy's Office involved in 68+% of those deaths. Dr. Murphy started his career in law enforcement in 1972 in Kansas City, Kansas; moving to Nevada in 1980 and continued his law enforcement career; he is a graduate of the FBI National Academy; and has a doctorate in business administration. Moreover, has served in public service for over 40 years. He will be presenting information in relation to General Death Investigation, High Profile Case Review/Management, In Custody Deaths, and the Role of the Coroner in Officer Involved Deaths.

In addition, we are honored to have Bradd Reynolds, Centralia Police Officer (Ret.). Mr. Reynolds worked all aspects of law enforcement during his career to include patrol, detectives, and as a K-9 handler. Mr. Reynolds now runs a successful photography studio in Chehalis and teaches Forensic Photography at the Centralia Community College. Mr. Reynolds experience and training has enabled him to obtain several national photography certification and merits. Mr. Reynolds is also a Commander for the Lewis County Fraternal Order of Police Critical Incident Response Team, who respond to assist officer(s) and agencies cope with the aftermath of a critical incident. Mr. Reynolds will be presenting on Forensic Photography techniques and helping us identify stressor resulting from everyday routine incidents to those intolerable critical incidents.
